

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

WHEREAS, while children across the State of New Jersey prepare for the start of a new school year, some students will begin their studies with undiagnosed and untreated vision disorders; and

WHEREAS, vision disorders could interfere with a child's education; and

WHEREAS, all children deserve the opportunity to learn and to achieve their full potential, and public awareness about learning-related vision disorders helps to ensure that young people receive the prompt vision treatment they need to enhance their lives; and

WHEREAS, parents, guardians, educators, school nurses and concerned adults should recognize the critical role that good vision plays in the learning process and work together to help prevent or reduce the impact that untreated vision disorders can have on children's ability to read and learn;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip D. Murphy, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby proclaim:

AUGUST 2023

AS

CHILDREN'S VISION AND LEARNING MONTH

in New Jersey.

GIVEN, under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Jersey, this twenty-seventh day of June in the year two thousand twenty-three, the two hundred and forty-seventh year of the Independence of the United States.

Lt. GOVERNOR
